About Philanos

Philanos is the leading national women's collective giving network with 80+ affiliates or member organizations in the US and two in England and Australia. It represents 18,000+ women who have collectively granted $200M+ in their communities. "Over the years, I have taken full advantage of the Philanos Conferences, webinars, and other resources to be an informed donor and a better giving circle board member. I have had hours of one-on-one conversations with several Philanos leaders. They always seem to have solutions or answers to my questions. Moreover, I learned about diversity, equity and inclusion and Trust-Based Philanthropy from Philanos." - Kim Pham, Philanos Affiliate Many Hands DC
