Dear ,

We appreciate you! We'd like to thank you for renewing your membership in WCGN. We will be reaching out to each member organization this fall to thank you personally and connect to hear your latest challenges and opportunities, as well as ask for your updates. This personal feedback allows us to incorporate what YOU need into our programming and learn about your innovations.

Summer is a wonderful time to sightsee, relax, connect and rest. It's also a great time to strategize, stretch and gear up for the "school year", and that is exactly what the WCGN Board has been doing since our last webinar in May. As you can see from the robust webinar line up below, the webinar committee has been hard at work over the summer. When the Board met for our annual planning retreat in June, we were fortunate to have been hosted by the Denver Foundation. This year we developed the objectives, goals, strategies and measures for our next three year strategic plan. It will be approved by the board later this year and shared with you in future newsletters, so stay tuned!

Staying connected and sharing resources is what WCGN is all about. To further this effort, we are establishing a quarterly collective conference call with your organization's Board Chair/President/Executive Director. WCGN Vice Chair Paula Liang and I recently sent an invite for a conference call on September 25, noon EST, 9 am PDT. We hope your leader can join us. RSVP or inquire more at vicechair@WCGN-network.org

Thanks to our host, Impact100 Philadelphia, and our dynamic Conference co-chairs Ellan Bernstein and Sue Dubow for securing the Logan Hotel, located in the heart of cultural Philadelphia, for our next conference on October 21-23, 2018. Contact Sue and Ellan (conference@wcn-network.org) to be part of the program development effort.

I am thrilled and humbled to be “standing on the shoulders” of the many great women leaders of WCGN before me. I’ve been passionate about women’s collective giving ever since I attended my first Annual Awards Celebration in October 2003 and quickly became a member of Impact 100, Cincinnati in 2004, serving on the Impact100 board for six years, including two years as Board President. After rolling off I was asked to serve again in 2016 and am currently co-chairing Recruiting. Obviously, I cannot get enough of this work!

I am here to listen to you, learn from and with you, and meet you at our next conference. Please join in on our webinars, share your feedback (webinars@wcn-network.org), your stories (share@wcn-network.org) or ask a question on the member-to-member discussion forum. As always, please feel free to contact me at any time jberg@wcn-network.org

Warmly,

Jenny Berg,

WCGN Board Chair

POSTPONED - September 12 Webinar

Since the path of Hurricane Irma is predicted to threaten the location of our webinar leaders and presenters, we have decided to postpone this topic until January 9. Please refer to this revised webinar calendar. Stay safe everyone!

Innovative Programs: Your Secret Weapon for Attracting and Retaining Members

REGISTER HERE for Future & Recorded

Webinars

Description: Searching for an effective way to attract members and non-members alike? This webinar presents good ideas from two WCGN member organizations. The Giving Circle of HOPE's "Big Give" event educated members about local nonprofits while also motivating current and potential members to pool their funds and make small grants. Nancy Davis addresses how to develop an innovative education program.

Presenters:

Cyndi Shanahan

Giving Circle of HOPE

(Reston, VA)

Calling All Sponsors

Do you know organizations whose values align with our commitment to see women succeed and lead, and a strong interest in the vitality of their local communities? If you know of a business or organization that would like to get in front of our members (e.g. technology, legal, accounting, financial services, wealth management, realty, corporate relocation), please let us know. We now have sponsorship opportunities for our October, 2018 Conference in Philadelphia and we are raising sponsor money to help us with WCGN network priorities, including a public relations/outreach campaign. We have a membership of connected, action-oriented, philanthropic women who are leaders in their communities. Sponsoring Partners will have unique opportunities to communicate with our powerful network of community leaders around the nation.

For Philadelphia Conference Sponsorships, contact Mary Broach at marybroach@gmail.com. To discuss WCGN Sponsorships, contact Paula Liang at paulaliang@gmail.com.

Meet Ginny Jarrett!

WCGN is about connecting and sharing. Getting to know your fellow members is key to that. In that effort, we are highlighting one member in each newsletter. If you have someone you want selected, please send your suggestion to info@wcn-network.org,

Say hello to Ginny Jarrett of the Roanoke Women's Foundation (RWF), and board member of WCGN!

Ginny Jarrett serves on the WCGN Board of Directors and Membership Committee. She is a co-founder of the Roanoke Women's Foundation, a WCGN member. Ginny is a Senior Vice President of Davenport & Co., LLC and has been a financial consultant for over thirty years. After attending a Junior League conference where she heard Colleen Willoughby, founder of Washington Women's Foundation speak on collective giving grantmaking, Ginny was determined to start one in her hometown. "Like a rabid dog, she couldn't give it up", said Kandy Elliott, Jarrett's close friend. Before the end of 2004, Elliott was on the board of directors and RWF was on its way to granting a total of $2,760,000 by 2017.

WCGN "Proust" Questionnaire – Ginny Jarrett, Roanoke Women's Foundation
